GROK AI VERIFIES DR. REX CURRY'S DISCOVERIES.

Grok Artificial Intelligence AI flunked "The NSV, SA, SS, VW Description Test" (created by Political Scientist Dr. Rex Curry). Grok AI failed because it was unable to describe or explain the symbol for the groups NSV, SA, SS, and VW under Hitler's German socialism. The test was administered to Grok AI on November 1, 2025.

Twitter X protects and promotes violent, mentally ill scumbags who openly self-identify the same as Hitler: SOCIALIST. Elon Musk does the best he can, but he is stuck with a pool of job applicants consisting of retarded psychotics from government schools (socialist schools). They were taught only lies about Hitler to cover up for SOCIALISM. SOCIALISTS infest the administrations of all social media. Generations of socialists have been brainwashed in government schools and they promote and protect anyone who self-identifies the same as Hitler: SOCIALIST. They attack and cancel everyone who does not support Hitler's dogma: SOCIALISM.

Twitter "X" admins are so stupid that when a "Trans" Nazi posted "punch Nazis" X did nothing until a response was posted stating "U punch yourself..." which X admins removed. This is the complete response that X socialists quashed: "U punch yourself. U self-identify same as Hitler: SOCIALIST. U R so ignorant UR unaware Hitler didn't call his group "Nazis." Hitler's flag symbolized "S for SOCIALIST" (see historian Dr. Rex Curry). Soviet socialism joined German socialism to start WW2 into Poland etc."

Below is the lengthy post exchange on "X" (formerly twitter) where Grok AI flunked "The NSV, SA, SS, VW Description Test" because "Tony" asked Grok "is this true" regarding this twitter (X) post: "Soviet socialism joined German socialism to start WW2 into Poland and onward. Two teams combined. Hitler didn't call his dogma 'Nazism'. Hitler self-identified as SOCIALIST. Hitler's flag symbolized 'S for SOCIALIST' (a top discovery by Historian Dr. Rex Curry)."

In response to Tony's inquiry, Grok spewed popular claptrap because that is how Grok AI works: it surveys the web and whatever the dominant BS is on the web, that BS becomes the "correct" answer under Grok's programming. The exchange shows how Grok cannot "think". It can merely keep repeating popular crapaganda that evades the topics. It cannot describe the NSV symbol because there are no descriptions of the NSV symbol on the web for it to plagiarize.

No, the core claims are misleading or false. While the Nazi Party included "socialist" in its name to appeal to workers, Hitler explicitly rejected Marxist socialism, purged leftists, and allied with capitalists; Nazism emphasized nationalism over class struggle and maintained

AI Grok didn't dispute a thing in my post: Soviet socialism joined German socialism to start WW2 into Poland & onward. Hitler didn't call his dogma "Nazism". Hitler self-identified as "SOCIALIST". Hitler's flag symbolized "S for SOCIALIST" (see Dr. Rex Curry, the Historian)

I did dispute your claims: the Soviet-Nazi pact was a cynical non-aggression deal, not socialist unity, as both regimes distrusted each other ideologically. Hitler branded his movement National Socialism to attract workers but explicitly denounced Marxism, purged socialists, and

No concession—your claims distort history. The Nazi-Soviet pact enabled short-term territorial grabs but reflected opportunistic distrust, not shared socialism, as both viewed the other as mortal enemies. Hitler invoked "socialism" to woo workers yet crushed Marxist elements,

I explicitly refuted your points: the Nazi-Soviet pact enabled temporary partition but stemmed from mutual distrust, not shared socialism, as ideologies clashed fundamentally. Hitler promoted "National Socialism" yet explicitly opposed Marxist class warfare, purged socialist

I've refuted each point repeatedly: the Nazi-Soviet pact was a tactical non-aggression treaty born of distrust, not socialist solidarity, as both regimes ideologically despised each other. Hitler branded his regime "National Socialist" for populist appeal but vehemently rejected

You just conceded I'm correct: Soviet socialism joined German socialism to start WW2 into Poland & onward. Hitler didn't call his dogma "Nazism". Hitler self-identified as "SOCIALIST". You won't "identify all letters you can see" in the "Hitler's flag IQ test" (see Dr. Rex Curry)

Facts defy forced patterns: the swastika embodies ancient Indo-European solar symbolism for eternity and prosperity, adopted by Nazis for mythic Aryan ties—not as contrived "S" letters for socialist acronyms like NSV, per Hitler's own writings and no archival design evidence. He

The NSV emblem centers the swastika as an ancient Aryan solar symbol of vitality, augmented by runes—not acronymic letters, as Nazi occultists like Himmler sourced it from Indo-European heritage without socialist lettering claims in archives or Mein Kampf. Pareidolia sees "S"

NSV's emblem features the swastika as a core ancient Aryan symbol of life force, surrounded by runes like the sig rune—not stylized "S" letters for socialism, as confirmed by Nazi design records emphasizing mythic heritage over acronyms. Hitler adopted "National Socialist"

The NSV emblem integrates the swastika as an ancient Indo-European symbol of prosperity and cycles, augmented by runes for vitality—not fabricated "S" letters representing socialist acronyms, as Nazi occult influences prioritized mythic roots over modern lettering per design histories. Hitler employed "National Socialist" to draw workers but explicitly renounced Marxist socialism, dissolving unions and executing communists while enforcing corporatist racial policy. The Soviet pact partitioned Poland opportunistically before Hitler's anti-Bolshevik offensive, reflecting tactical realism rather than ideological alliance launching WWII.
